Life is always beautiful. It all depends on us....

Pebbles

"Few people's Ego is bigger than this Planet! They carry to the grave for next life"

Why we don't change so easily?.

Good words arrive only at our ears- we never allow them to land in our Mind!

Knowledge is not free. You need to pay "attention"!

Craving and attachment towards People & Things are the root cause for fear of death. Despite knowing that we are "mortals" and are carried by people at the end!

Our Prayers to God is generally "Transactional" as every prayer has a tag line with one wish!

Pebbles

None lights the candle at your home when power goes-it's you do it. Same way, you need to enlighten yourself to throw the inner darkness!

In changing times- Time changes swiftly- when it won't look at its own Time, we are nothing, change swiftly!

Life and Death are woven from the same fabric!

I may be a stranger to you as a body- but you are familiar to me as a Soul!

For everything there is an end-there is "No thing" which is never ending. Death is the "completion" of life cycle!

Pebbles

You can beat the infertility by taking treatment from a doctor- what do you do if it's for your mind? Be aware you are the Doctor!

Don't allow any tenants to reside in your Mind-you are the owner as well as tenant of your Mind-there can be only visitors!

Though intellectually we know the Impermanence of this life, "Craving and Emotions" binds us with a wish of claiming permanency here!

Don't just look at the Flower "Feel the Fragrance" same way in every human relationship!

We have no choice of "what the world is throwing at us", but we have the ability to convert them in to serene happiness!

Pebbles

I groomed, nurtured and adopted Ego and I become its Genie now!

Push yourself in life-Even a seed to become sprout- it pushes very hard through the Earth for its birth, growth and existence-nothing happens without effort!

Our Soul pack up only intangibles while leaving and leaves our body along with other tangibles!

We have been seeing How Life can be with a bad neighbor? Then why make this type of people as permanent tenants in our Mind!

There is no death for me- I am eternal-as I am part of Mahakaal-The Supreme of the Universe and I am in every person!

Soul

Pebbles

Your Soul has taken your body for a short assignment- align with it to lead a Happy Life!

It looks "Illogical and Disbelief" for few people, when someone does any help or support unconditionally! Don't blame them as it's a clear sign of improper upbringing by their parents for this attitude!

Remember -the Life inside your Body is because of the Soul- when it decides to sport another body it drops yours-Make this Life meaningful!

Did you notice the attitude of Human beings? We always remember to ask God to grant our Wishes, but not even once we ask Him to appear!

*Do you know the Source of your Existence and Growth?
Don't search outside!
It's your Thoughts!*

Pebbles

Everybody have faults as humans-Always finding faults with everyone is a mental disorder! Are you the one?

Once the farmer's hand is placed on plough never looks back till his harvest the yield and he continues till last- against all odds. Similarly the moment you are born you are created for a purpose-identify, move forward and never look back in life!

Ensure your Faith is much stronger than your Fear to make things happen in life!

Whatever you have accumulated in the mind between the ages of "Thirteen to Nineteen"; better to unlearn few as you picked them up due to hormones influence-all accumulation may not be knowledge!

One should learn to live with "detached attachment"- like a Lotus grows and lives in the muddy water-without a trace on it!

Pebbles

To be spiritual- you need not become a monk, nor wear saffron robes- as spirituality is a state of mind!

Remember, you may belong to the Family and to many people- not forever. As once they grow and no more they need you- few jettison you- without a blink!

Don't look for accompaniment to travel along with you in discovering yourself - Everyone has to travel alone in their discovery!

Don't accumulate the smaller problems as they look small in nature- As any accumulation becomes BIG without your effort!

Marriage is the game changer in one's Life, it will make- from "I" to "We and us"!

Pebbles

Remember that you are a "Fully Loaded Creation" by God to tackle any damn thing in this world; utilize the devises which are in "Tangible and Intangible form" Within!

If someone tries to reach when the signals are strong enough- be available and you also call people. As everyone will go to "Out of calling area" in Life- one day- neither can call nor receive calls!

There are no self-help books in the Market to understand yourself!

When you don't find words to express for some of your "Feelings" in the dictionary- demonstrate them!

Build "path" for others, if possible- but not "blocks" in their life!

Pebbles

Death is "Vacation" Soul takes from its body till it moves on to another!

Define and demonstrate the word "Selflessness" to your children as an attitude, while they are kids- as chances of their becoming "Selfish" is remote! After all it helps you too when you look at them in "dire need"!

Early Departure from your Past-lands you into a bright Future!

To become a Leader, seize the opportunities- don't steal them!

Are you aware that YOU too can spread fragrance like a flower- why don't you try once?

Pebbles

Value the people who value "Values" than "Valuables"-as they are Real Valuables!

Few People forget the formative years of their life- as if they have no memory back up!

*Nobody entertain the Truth
as it never entertains!*

Get exhausted daily with happiness!

There is no "one-upmanship" in life in any Relationship-don't get tempted to prove it as it strains that relationship!

It's natural to talk to your parents. It shows your upbringing besides your love- if you are calling your Relatives & Friends too!

Pebbles

Receive people with "Open arms" not with empty arms!

People's Aspirations run their life-not the destiny!

When people have "Low self-esteem and lack of confidence" they operate from "Approval Mode"- looking at others approval!

Pray for the "Universe" in your daily prayers-you are part of "it"!

God has premature call back option any time for bad performance-don't take your life for granted-be aware!

Pebbles

Try to connect yourself to Soul at an early age-before you attain Ego -as you miss your enlightenment!

Spirituality is the State of Mind-not your costumes!

Human nature is when we don't like people, we often respond from our past experience- for a current situation- which is not correct!

Death is an appointment with the God by the Soul for the new Body!

The "Fear" in Life is more dangerous than malignancy- don't succumb to it!

Pebbles

Never go for spirituality to fill the "Void" in your life-though it's not wrong. It's advisable to go to it- to know more about "Self" while leading normal life!

Your happiness should not be related to fulfillment of your desires- irrespective- make happiness a way of life!

Sometimes few victories in life are intangible-which fructifies at an appropriate time in life

It's natural for humans to get attracted for tangibles and have craving for them in Life-Strangely; we ignore the intangible God who has created all these tangibles for us!

Pebbles
